Getting Started

Encourage everyone to get their minds focused and prepared for studying the Bible. Consider singing a song or two. I have uploaded a teen songbook that we use at camp. Perhaps you will spot some songs that are familiar and you can sing together as a family. Click here to download the songbook.

Review

Last week we concluded our study of Abraham, Sarah and Isaac. The study concluded with a look at Romans 12:1-2. What was the message of this verse? What was the biggest lesson you learned from a detailed study of the life of Abraham?

Devotional Thought

There is a certain fascination in our house with rainbows. Maybe it is because we have a house of little girls but perhaps it is because of the promise of God that is associated with the rainbow. Let's read about it...

READ Genesis 9:8-17

The "bow" in the sky is God's promise to us that never again will the whole earth be destroyed by flood. The rainbow is a great symbol of God because it reveals the unseen parts of our world. The light that shines in our world is refracted through raindrops and splits into the various colors of the spectrum which are all around us. It is an amazing site to behold whether you are 5 years old or 50 years old.

Storms will come that scare us. Some storms will destroy houses and cars and hurt people, but God has promised that never again will the entire world be flooded. This promise was made to Noah, his family and all people that would follow. This isn't a fairytale, it is a promise of God that continues today.

Conclusion

What other evidence of God can you see around you? Spend some time as a family discussing, or even better get outside your house and look around. God bless your efforts as a family! A color sheet of Noah, the ark and the rainbow is provided for younger families.
